

60 years

World Health Organization

Our health
Our future

WHO 60th Anniversary Global Health Histories Seminars

March - December 2008

WHO Library

12.30 – 14.00

Co-organized with
The Wellcome Trust Centre for the History of Medicine, University College, London

-
- March 27: The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) and “the world task in public health”
- April 17: Legacies of climate change and land use in West Africa
- May 29: Marcel Proust and the global history of asthma
- June 12: Cold War politics and the Rockefeller Foundation
- July 3: The Nazi mind: psychology, psychoanalysis and politics
- July 17: Towards a history of psychotherapy
- September 18: International nursing organization in the 20th century
- October 2: South Asia governments, WHO and global smallpox eradication
- November 20: The rise of the global health consultant: Brian Abel-Smith
- December 4: Antiretroviral therapy in Zambia: the meaning of ARVs

www.who.int/global_health_histories/www.ucl.ac.uk/histmed/

UCL

The Wellcome Trust Centre for the History of Medicine at UCL